

French

In the Languages Department, we're passionate about the benefits that learning a language can bring. We strongly believe in languages as a skill for life and something which you should enjoy and find rewarding.

Why should you follow this course?

If you enjoy communicating with other people, finding out how language works and learning about different countries and cultures, studying A level French is an excellent choice for you.

You will learn to understand a lot more French when you hear it or read it and be able to say and write a lot more in French.

There are many reasons for taking this A level course:

- You will be able to share your interests, ideas and opinions with other people who speak French.
- You will learn about the countries where French is spoken and get a lot more out of a visit there.
- You will add an international dimension to your choice of A level subjects, which is something many future employers and higher education providers look for.
- You will learn many skills which are useful in a wide range of future careers, such as the ability to communicate clearly, being confident about speaking in public, using problem-solving strategies, etc.
- You will create greater opportunities for yourself to work abroad, or for companies in the UK with international links. Many employers look for people who speak a foreign language.

How will I work?

You need to practise and improve your reading and listening skills so that you can understand a magazine article or a television discussion. You need to develop your vocabulary, your verbs and your knowledge of tenses. You will improve your ability to speak and write French, to understand grammar better and gain in oral confidence.

What can I do after the course?

People with language skills and knowledge are highly thought of in the modern world. They stand out as talented and successful people, with broad and exciting horizons!

Taking A level French means you will:

- have much more fun when travelling to a French speaking country
- add an extra dimension to your personal skills profile which will impress anyone who reads your CV
- be in a stronger position to get a job in companies with international links or to work abroad.
