

Performing Arts

You should follow the course if you wish to develop:

- Your own skills with an opportunity to specialise in performance or production support
- An understanding of all aspects of performing arts
- An insight into the nature of performing arts in employment opportunities, constraints and the issues facing professionals working within the sector

During the Certificate year you will:

Follow two mandatory units which focus on: practical skills and techniques in a range of performing arts disciplines, critical analysis skills and contextual understanding of practitioners work; gaining a taste and an appreciation of performing arts through knowledge and experience of the performance process.

You will also have the opportunity to develop a range of skills, techniques and personal attributes which will be valuable across all areas of future study.

During the Extended Certificate year you will:

Follow a further mandatory unit which will focus on: a group performance, where you will develop the essential psychomotor and affective skills essential for the performing arts. You will develop physical techniques as well as wider transferable skills, such as being able to work collaboratively, personal management and organisation (rehearsals, time-management), being able to give and take direction, confidence in front of an audience, problem solving (refining the process) and teamwork.
